

06.11.25

Year 5

1. Read your reading book for 30 minutes each night.
2. Practise your times tables for 10 minutes each night and complete your maths worksheet.
3. Practise your spellings.
4. If you can, play Times Tables Rock Stars and Hit the Button for 10 minutes each night.

Anti-Bullying Next Week

To celebrate Anti-Bullying week and Odd socks day which is happening on Monday (10/11/25), we have some exciting Odd Socks day homework!

We would like you to design your own odd sock. Try and link it to being respectful and kind.

In your homework book, write some ideas about how you can help to stop bullying, for example:

- Being kind and understanding.
- Telling a trusted adult if you know someone is being bullied.

Homework is due on: 11.11.25

Design an odd sock for anti-bullying week! Name: _____
Class: _____

ANTI-BULLYING ALLIANCE

